

Mechanical Services

March's mechanical group has years of experience with mechanical design and project management. Our staff is particularly familiar with the mining, mineral processing, and oil sands industries.

We have expertise that includes plant layout and design, equipment specification, selection, installation, commissioning, and overhauls. We are known for our innovative approach to problem solving and the capital and operational savings resulting from it.

Plant Design and Layout
Fabrication and Machining
Industrial HVAC